

DAWNVALE
GROUP

RESTAURANT+BAR
DESIGN+BUILD

1968 Lounge, Wham Stadium

Named after the club's revival in 1968 following their departure from the Football League in 1962, the 1968 Lounge was thoughtfully designed to accommodate hundreds of people on matchdays.

Additionally, it serves as a versatile space available for private events, gatherings and can also be used by the community for various events.

Name: 1968 Lounge, Wham Stadium
Location: Accrington
Scope: Stadia Fit Out

EFFICIENT SERVICE

The bar features several bespoke bar stations to enhance efficiency and speed of service on busy matchdays. The bar includes a functional oak back bar with brass overhead stemware racks, combining aesthetics with practicality.

COMMERCIAL KITCHEN

From the outset, the commercial kitchen was designed to cater to over 1500 guests with a primary focus on speed and efficiency. This ensured that matchday guests can fully enjoy their experience without missing the match.

VERSATILE FURNITURE

To meet the demands of busy matchdays, the layout was meticulously designed to ensure efficient service. Moreover, to accommodate various events, we opted for versatile, movable furniture that can be easily rearranged as needed.

IDEAL SETTING

The 1968 Lounge enhances the matchday experience for fans, providing an ideal setting to savour delicious food and drinks while comfortably watching the game from their tables, both before and after the match.

